"The Times of Your Life"

Mrs. Cindy Harris — Advisor Robin Brown — Editor

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

Ecclesiastes 3: 1-8

Dedication

As we reminisce our years at Caldwell High School, a special person comes to our mind. She is one that was always there whenever we needed her. She is a teacher who cares and does all the little "extras" to lend a helping hand to her students. She served as our student teacher association advisor and as our senior class sponsor. She taught us to have pride in ourselves and made all her classes enjoyable. For these reasons the Caldwell High School Annual Staff proudly dedicates this 1979 edition of the Excalibur to . . .

Special Tribute

Mrs. Harris,
We just wanted to let you know how much help you were to all of us on the annual staff. Your leadership and understanding guided us greatly as we fought over deadlines, picture retakes, campaign drives, and fundraising projects. Without you it would not have been possible.

We love you

Valedictorian — Doug Hill

Salutatorian — Phyllis Hickman

We have made it at last!
Through these twelve long years,
We have shared all our hopes, our dreams, and our fears.
Think of it now, all the times we have had,
Not only the good, but also the bad.
As freshmen we rushed madly to each class
Wishing each period would soon be our last.
As sophomores our spirit grew steadily apace
Because we knew we would soon win this race.
Juniors we were, what joy it did bring,
For now on the hand gleamed a shiny class ring.
Mighty seniors we now are, and what lies ahead . . .
Government, term papers, Macbeth — we wish we were dead.
We thought this year would be a real blast,
But it has been hectic right up to the last.
But we survived — life's problems we faced
With wisdom, intelligence, honor, and grace.
To our parents, teachers, principal, and advisors
Who have helped us to learn and grow ever wiser
We give thanks to you for the time you have spent
For the love and knowledge and guidance you've lent.
So the time has come when we must say farewell
To the school life we have known here at Caldwell.
Though our pathways may go in many directions,
We will always be able to stand close inspections.
For seniors you must remember on your journey
Through life that:

We're the best you'll ever find
The mighty class of '79!

Abraxas

1979 marked the revival of Caldwell's literary magazine, the Abraxas. It also marked the rebirth of opportunity for Caldwell students to display and receive recognition for their talent.

The 1979 Abraxas is a culmination of the efforts of Mrs. Murrah and the staff working only during study hall and after school hours. This accomplishment, however, will pave the way for a class period next year and for an established literary magazine at Caldwell.

We're planting trees by the millions!

This year every man, woman, and child in the nation will use the equivalent of a 100-foot tree — for lumber, plywood and other wood panels, paper, packaging, and many other products made from wood and wood fiber.

Fortunately, trees are one of the nation's renewable resources. To replace the trees we harvest, we're planting new forests at a record pace — more than 150 million trees annually.

Have a Pepsi day

I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to each and every one of the members of the 1979 annual staff for their time, dedication, and hard work in compiling this yearbook.

I would also like to thank you, the student body for your cooperation with this year's annual staff. There is a lot of expense involved in publishing a yearbook, and through annual sales and derby day you helped us out.

Alice Bloodworth is your 1980 Excalibur editor; I hope you will support her with the annual next year. I know she will be very successful.

Seniors, I hope you will treasure this yearbook. Maybe it will help you to remember, "The Times Of Your Lives."

Robin Brown
